

Talking Points for 2018 Webelos Woods: Return to Monster Island

- Registration Link is LIVE: <https://scoutingevent.com/083-2018WebelosWoodsD3>
- REGISTER NOW!!! Early Registration concludes midnight Christmas, then increases to $20; at the door registration is $25. Registration for parents and guardians is $13 and $6 per Boy Scouts
- Tee shirts may be ordered on the same link for $10.65
- There will two (2) Friday evening complimentary Cracker Barrel/campfire programs; one for the parents conducted by Boy Scout leadership and Webelos Woods staff and one for the Webelos and AOLs conducted by Boy Scouts
- Camping with Boy Scouts and developing and/or enhancing Scout skills with hands on experiences will be the focus of this weekend event. Come out Friday and Check-Out Sunday for the full experience
- Webelos and AOLs will have hands on learning opportunities Saturday morning and spend Saturday afternoon in a variety of competitions and challenges (a lot of fun has been built into the event – a good time is pretty much guaranteed)
- Saturday evening will have showcase dinner and dessert competitions, gateway and campsite judging will also be conducted. Gateway materials and instruction will be provided
- Read the Leader Guide
- Patrols for Webelos and AOLs will be assigned Saturday morning; Patrol Flags will be provided
- Godzilla is the theme and Boy Scout units can pick their monster (any monster) and create a patrol flag, Unit leadership will need to contact the Event Chair, Harvey King or Lydia Gregg, District Camping Chair to advise them of the troop's choice to avoid duplication
- Boy Scout Troops will host an 'Open House' style Cracker Barrel Saturday night to encourage visitation
- Be prepared with a skit for campfire program Saturday night
- Scout's Own Ceremony concludes the event Sunday Morning
- All units are responsible for their own food and food prep with the exception of the Cracker Barrels